BROWN SUGAR CRUNCH

Add the flour and spread very thinly between two sheets of greaseproof paper.
Refrigerate for 1 hour.

CHOUX PASTRY

Heat the milk, butter and salt. Add the sifted flour when the mixture begins to simmer.
Mix rapidly to dry out the dough.
Add the eggs one by one to hydrate the dough.
With a piping bag fitted with a 14 mm tip, pipe choux pastries that are 5 cm in diameter and cover them with 4 cm of the crunch.
Bake at 165°C for about 20 minutes.

FRENCH MERINGUE

Whisk the egg whites, adding the sugar little by little.
Add the sifted icing sugar. Using a spatula, create meringue petals on greaseproof paper.
Bake at 80°C for about 90 minutes.

PASSION FRUIT AND MANGO COMPOTE

Mix the caster sugar with the pectin.
Heat the mango pulp and the passion fruit juice, then add the sugar.
Boil, then chill at 4°C, covered with clingfilm, for 30 minutes.
Mix and refrigerate.

MADAGASCAN VANILLA CREAM

Heat the cream with the milk and grated vanilla bean.
Add the egg yolk and cook to 83°C.
Pour over the hydrated gelatin and the Ivoire couverture.
Mix and pour into a silicon mould.
Leave to harden at -18°C.

WHIPPED VANILLA CREAM

Infuse the cream with the vanilla beans for 5 minutes.
Add the sugar and warm.
Add the hydrated gelatin and bring to a simmer.
Pour onto the mascarpone, add the cold cream and refrigerate for 4 hours at 4°C.
Whip the cream and use it to decorate the choux pastries.
Inject the mango compote and place the choux pastry with the rounded side facing down.
Add the vanilla cream on the top and decorate with the meringue petals.
Sprinkle with vanilla powder.
