Preparation

Reversed puff pastry

Mix together the cubed "dry" butter and 130 g flour, spread onto a tray and refrigerate for 1 hour at 5°C. Make a "detrompe" with the mixer and dough hook using the 260 g flour, water, salt and softened butter. Allow to rest for 1 hour in the refrigerator at 5°C. Place the "detrompe" onto the butter and flour and fold into three. Give a simple turn $(folded into \ 3) \ and \ rest for \ 1 \ hour. \ Give \ a \ double \ turn \ (book \ fold) \ and \ rest \ for \ 1 \ hour. \ Give \ a \ simple \ turn \ (folded into \ 3)$ and rest for 1 hour.

Stock the baton in "cling film" in the refrigerator at 4°C. Before using, give a double turn (book fold) and rest for 15 min before rolling out. In total we gave the puff paste 6 folds. Roll out the puff paste to 2.5 cm in thickness onto a baking tray of 60×40 cm and allow to rest for 30 min. Place the tray into a fan forced oven at 170° C for 4 min then into the freezer. Cut out 3 discs of 22 cm in diameter and place the discs on to sheets of "fiberpain". Stock for the

In a mixing bowl fitted with a paddle, combine all ingredients together without overworking. Stock the paste in the refrigerator at 5° C. Roll out the paste in-between two plastic sheets. (This recipe gives a half tray of $60 \text{cm} \times 40 \text{cm}$). Put the paste into the freezer then cut out discs slightly larger than the size of the choux - around 2 cm in diameter. Stock in the freezer.

In a saucepan, bring to the boil the milk, butter, salt and sugar. Remove from the heat and add the flour. Return the pan to the heat and dry out the paste. Turn out the paste into a mixing bowl and using a paddle, turn the mixer on a slow speed to progressively add the eggs. Add the hot milk if necessary. Using a piping bag fitted with a N°14 nozzle, pipe out a crown onto the 18 cm discs of puff pastry. Pipe out the 1.8 cm small balls of choux onto a tray and cover with the discs of vanilla sable.

Bake in a bakers oven at 175°C for 35 to 40 min for the discs and 25 min for the small choux balls. Remove from the oven and cool down on racks until completely cold.

The remaining choux can be piped out and stocked in the freezer.

Make a pastry cream with the indicated ingredients. Cool down completely in the refrigerator and stock for the light vanilla cream.

Smooth out the pastry cream then add the melted gelatine mass and the whipped cream. Stock for the filling of the St
